The Points of a Horse. It is a well-known fact that the various pecies of animals in a wild state transmit eir primal characteristics of form, color nd other distinguishing features from eneration to generation. The wild English cattle, for instance, which once bounded in the ancient forests of the lassic land of Northumberland, roaming brough the woods and deep dells of the Northumbrian border, testify their purity of blood by their common resemblance, be ng universally milk white, having only he tips of their horns and muzzles and ars colored. But when they were mixed with the common breed the color was lost. Here, then, is the explanation of the varous colors to be found in the horse. It is ery generally considered that color, as ell as other distinguishing characteristics, an be fixed in the breed, but it requires nany generations to hand it down with

We will next invite attention to the edominating colors and the accredited alue attached to each. In the first place, he remarks of General Danmas, who never wearied of studying all the points of the noble animal, are worthy of the greatest attention. In his standard work, "The Horses of Sahara," he gives the adages which pass current in the East: "The Arabs are very particular as to the olor of their horses. White is the color or the Princes, but does not stand heat. The black brings good fortune, but fears rocky ground. The chestnut is the most active. If one tells you he has seen a norse fly in the air, ask of what color it was; if he replies 'Chestnut,' believe him. In a combat against a chestnut, you must have a chestnut. The bay is the hardiest, most sober. If one tells you a horse has leaped to the bottom of a precipice without hurting himself, ask of what color he was, and if he replies 'Bay,' believe him. "Ben Dyab, a renowned chief of the desert, who happened one day to be pursued by Saad-el-Zanity, turned to his son and

A black horse is not held in such high esteem, and yet many a superior animal wears a coat of sable hue. It has been said by gatherers of statistics on the biect that chestnuts have good constituons, but are often high-tempered, while the black or red roan wears well, and is not moved by every shadow that crosses his ath. The piebald and soft colors, with hite markings, do not find favor for racing r general purposes. LICENSING GAMES.

Just at this time Sacramento is the target for the whole State. It is a capital head, and every hand is raised to deal it a blow. The excuse for all the abuse now showered upon the city, is the thieving of humiliated and disgraced by a quasi-indorsement of that which the State can make a crime, is true. But our neighbors should remember that if there are motes Gambling is general throughout the State, and young January learned the games and lost a large portion of the money in other towns. Moreover, a very large part of it was lost in games not prohibited by State law, and that are played everywhere, not even the San Francisco ordinance wholly suppressing the most vicious of these. There is no excuse to be made for the act of our authorities that comes anywhere near counterbalancing the injury to the city resulting directly from that act. If the officials would take pains to inform themselves concerning the assaults being made upon the city, the bitter criticisms indulged in, the lies told of us, the prejudices that are being cultivated at our expense, and the friends that we are losing, politically and commercially, we are inclined to believe that they would consider the sum received for licenses too dearly purchased. We are perfectly certain of the accuracy new attempt to license games not now unlawful, is contrary to the moral sense of the very large majority. The Trustees in a third. Four ballot boxes are used in day of reckoning. Beyond that the find out how the Representatives of the demands for physical rest are so exacting other counties, cities and towns esteem that he is liable to commit errors in the this matter, and the revelation, we fear, will not be very pleasant. FARMING OUT THE DEAD.

Despite the sport that has been made of the candidacy of the cranky Dr. O'Donnell for the office of Coroner in San Francisco, and the contempt with which his name has been treated, now that he has been elected, he comes forward with propositions that are sound and the very statement of which constitute a just rebuke to that city. The Coroner-elect, whom the permitted to vote at school elections." This is nishes temporary accommodation that nishes temporary accommodation thas necessary accommodation that nishes temporary accommodation th respectful treatment of the unre-aminer.

DAILY RECORD-UNION recognized and pauper dead. It must largely contribute to defeat the ends of justice, since the bodies are at the mercy of private convenience and post mortem examinations cannot be had with the care which should mark their conduct. It appears also that the method of farming out the dead in San Francisco results in their burial in a manner that is disgraceful to the city. All this O'Donnell proposes to emedy. He asks for the establishment of laying-out room and refrigerating apparaus; with slabs on which bodies may be viewed through plate glass windows, that the odors of the room may not reach the ner, a prospector from California, and told spectators; for retiring rooms for visitors; for operating rooms for physicians; a mortuary chapel for the use of the poor and a jury-room for the Coroner. He asks that the poor be decently buried. and that their bodies shall no longer be made subjects of contention by rival undertakers. There is reason in all these demands. There is no denial to be made of resist the "undertaking" influences and accede to the requests of the Coroner-elect.

PUBLIC EXECUTIONS.

It is said that the execution of Bateman murderer, at Savannah, the other days vas witnessed by 20,000 people. Many of these drove from twenty to fifty miles "to ee the hangin'." That Georgia should cling to the revolting system of public ex. cutions, is as inexplicable as that Delaware should adhere to the barbarous whipping of criminals. All experience proves that public executions exert exceedingly pernicious influences upon a people. They appeal to low and brutal assions; they cultivate a morbid taste; they in no wise make crime horrible, or exercise a restraining influence. The very fact that people left their vocations and drove fifty miles to witness the choking to death of a fellow-being is in itself testimony of an absolutely convincing character that the public execution does not excite emotions in the spectators which tend to estrain them from crime, or inspire them with its awful character. Even executions within jail-yards, in the presence of forty or fifty spectators and on a given day and at a given hour, as is the custom and law in California, should be prohibited. It is found that thousands of people gather outside of the prison walls in such cases and feed their morbid fancies by the vividess of their imaginations, and speculate upon the precise moment at which life is orcibly ejected from the criminal.

The system most consonant with reason hat will be most efficacious as a deterent that will possess the least vicious characeristics, and make crime and its results nost odious, is that to which we firmly believe society will come before long-to A Convention of colored men is called to meet wit, absolute privacy of the execution, not a single individual being permitted to and hour, none but court officials being ognizant of it, and they being bound under severe penalties to its keeping. Thus, when the final judgment is passed. the condemned would, to all practical inents and purposes, be cut off from the world. He should be civilly dead from the hour of his conviction. His name should not become common in the public mouth, nor his cell be made the scene of sentimental romancing on the part of sickly cranks who fawn upon murderers. He would be given no opportunity to pose upor young January, who squandered other the scaffold as a hero, or to "die game." people's money in gambling. In every way possible the infemy of his taking off should be augmented, and the greatest privacy possible will contribute to that end. The execution can be effected without even the the interposition of the brutal gallows or mutilating guillotine. The official record of the execution would be as full as at present, but the sensational press would be cut off from their nauseating detailed re ports, that quite as much as public executions tend to demoralize the public taste. ELECTION REFORMS.

The Alta calls for some change in the California election laws to expedite the counting of votes at elections and the ancouncement of results. But our contemporary does not follow it up by suggesting the needed modification. One thing that would expedite matters, and free the elections largely from the evils of "trades," would be the use of more ballot-boxes a each polling place. There is no reason why one ballot should contain the names of all persons to be voted for at one election. The voter can, without greatly increased trouble, cast a ballot for Federal officers in one box, a ballot for State offithis people and opposed to the wishes of cers in another, and for municipal officers let them remember that there will come a that voting is expedited and the voters not

The change, however, would carry with it of necessity a change other needed reform is a law compelling number of clerks, so that they may be divided into relays or relief corps. PACIFIC COAST ITEMS.

Tacoma, W. T., has a tub and pail fact The lower Klamath, Oregon, is being surveyed. The Court-house at Santa Rosa will soon e completed. Tacoma, W. T., has incorporated a wooder pipe manufacturing company. On Monday night, says the Folsom Teleraph, as Daniel McLain was returning om New York ravine in a buggy belonging to Mrs. Donnelly, he met Messrs Schone and Monroe on horseback. Dan drove to one side of the road, expecting the horsemen to pass on the other side. night was quite dark, and, Mr. Schone en-Morris, the Chicago jeweler charged with deavoring to pass Daniel without going having swindled several other Chicago jew-around him, a collision resulted, one of the of McLain's buggy entering o-day, and again remanded to await an breast of Schone's horse, inflicting injuries from which the animal will probably die In speaking of the work being done on urrived from Chicago. Morris offered to the Folsom bridge, the Folsom Telegraph of the posit $10,000 worth of the jewelry found Saturday last says: The repairs on the his trunk as security for his appearance, bridge will be completed to-day. This has been a queer job. Only one-half of the planking constituting the floor of the bridge the half reaching from the Ashland side -has been replaced, though the boards on this side were equally worn and unfit for further use. The old floor beams, which during which large buildings were shaken. were as good as when they were put down, The second shock was accompanied by a were taken up and replaced with inferior heavy rumbling noise, sufficiently loud to timbers. The work was done in accordawaken people. The shocks were felt in ance with the recommendation of an expert from Sacramento.

"Define a good figure," said Mrs. Kelogg, the well-known Detroit sculptor. Well, a good figure is a rarity. There are so many girls who come to me to pose as models, and so very few who are of the east use! Their knees are crooked and their arms bent and their waists pinched n—there is always something wrong. See that head and trunk? That is Proserpine. She is shrinking away from Pluto, who is Broadway were shattered. The land about to carry her away to the infernal res connecting with the cables were prospective regions to be his wife. Now, do you know that it took sittings of five different models to make that one piece? Now you can imagine how hard it is to find a really good figure. I did see a good figure once She was almost perfect. You know the Venus de Medici is supposed to be the perfection of form. Well, this girl's figure was almost identical with hers. Had I wished to make a full-sized statue I would not have changed her one iota. She was a very wealthy girl and very indolent. Sitting always in her room in negligee costume and taking so little exercise, she grew to be the very perfection of grace. Every pose was a study, and every move beautiful. And do you know that gir aced-terribly so. She compressed her waist, I should think, seven inches smaller than it naturally was. But then she work orsets for only about three hours each veek, she went out so little. She was a very attractive girl, but not very pretty-very good figures seldom are. I will give yo her dimensions. She was 5 feet $4\frac{1}{2}$ inches high. Then she measured 31 inches about the bust, 26½ inches about the waist, 35 inches over the hips, 9 inches rom the armpit to the waist, 111 inches around the ball of the arm, 91 inches round the elbow, and 61 inches around he wrist. You see she tapered 41 inches rom the bust to the waist; that's right. Small waists and large hips look horrible to an artist. Then her hands and feet were good and large. An artist always he Gilsey House in some haste at 6:30 this looks for large extremities. The feet of evening, after receiving a telegram from this girl were 9½ inches long. 'What an immense hoof,' do you say? Well, not so ery large. I think it was a No. 4 shoe she took. Now, here is a cut of foot not so large, you will say. Well it measures 81 inches. The fingers of the hand, too, must be long and taper with a curve backward at the tips. Women have come to me proud of their hands, such tiny hands, and yet perfect deformities, with every finger warped and crooked. I should have said, of course, that no figure can be good unless well rounded and free from angles I must confess, though, that a fine statuesque Isle of Aux Coudres, and state that towards figure would not look well draped in the nightfall of the 5th inst. they saw off the present fashion. Yes, I will give my idea of a fine figure in the present fashion Bust measure, 32 inches; waist, 24; ner sides, and appealing to the light-house inches from armpit to waist; long arms and long neck. By 'neck' I mean from the collar bone to the chin; and recollect this

I would far rather see the waist 25 inches than 23. This figure shall be 5 feet 4k in hight. I once saw a figure I admired a good deal that was 34 about the bust and 20 about the waist."—[Detroit Free Press. 15 cents would be the highest bid. ollowing appeared in the Bulletin Saturday

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Will They Do It? The proprietors of the stud-horse poke and dice gambling deadfalls in this city claim that they are certain of securing the favorable consideration and support of the City Trustees at their meeting this morn ing. They claim that a license ordinance will be passed, whereby for a moderate sum they will secure in a legal way the in dorsement, sanction and approval of our City Fathers; that, so far as the indorse ment of the City Trustees is of any weight they will have that indorsement and weight thrown in their favor to make the robbing business, by means of stud-horse poker and dice gambling, as respectable as elling groceries or a morning beefsteak The Trustees are not responsible for claim made by others that they look favorably upon gambling robbery, and intend, unde the pretense of "regulating" by imposing a license upon it, to give it their official and personal sanction and approval, but the people and voters of Sacramento will watch with intense interest to see whether the gambler made these claims knowingly, and if they did, but one construction will be placed upon the action of the Board in trying t affix the seal of respectability upon this arch infamy. To place a license fee of sa $100 per month on these robberies is bu little short of an open declaration of officia partnership with them. Information has been received at this office during the past giving the names of proprietors and location of five stud-horse and dice establishments in the which make from $1,000 to $2,500 per month each by their nefarious work These proprietors will be present in force this morning again, before the Board of Trustees, as they were last Monday,

Therefore if it be passed, the vote by which it is done will be an open declaration that t was done, not to suppress or regulate ut in the interest of these lobbyists and these robbing games. It will be remembered that at the last meet ing of the Board of Trustees the law officer of the city stated before the Board that if an ordinance was passed making these places and games unlawful, it could and ty of vaccination as a prophylactic against would be enforced. This fact leaves the an epidemic of small-pox, which may be Trustees whether they will serve the inter erest of our boys, the young men, their stamping out the terrible crime, or sery these gamblers and indorse their robberies by granting their petition for license. There is an admonition handed down from of old, which seems as if written to

The Woodland Democracy, on Friday ast, sent to this city large hand-bills printed in blood-red letters, announcing the fact that the Democracy of Yolo would have a grand whoop-up, Saturday night, when they would ratify the election of I.O.G.T., meets in Galt to-morrow. Cleveland, Hendricks and Reform. They extended an invitation to the Democratic organizations of this city to be present They even went farther and said, "Come and be our guests." Saturday evening about 200, among them several Republicans, left in cars attached to the regular cans, left in cars attached to the regular train, fare $1 for the round trip. At the Woodland depot they were met by a large number of citizens and escorted into the town. They marched up and down Main street three times, until the Sacramento boys commenced to growl and ask "Where is the expecting going to take place?" This is the speaking going to take place?" This however, was not on the programme. The procession was disbanded in front of the Capitol Hotel. The boys from Sacramento then marched up town, improvised a speakers' stand, and with the assistance of the Hussen hand soon had a grown Lohn the Hussar band soon had a crowd. John Lambert called the meeting to order, and introduced as the first speaker F. M. Brown, of the Woodland Democrat. He made a speech which was well received, and was followed by Judge W. A. Henry of this city, a former resident of Yolo. Brief remarks were made by several others. After the meeting the Sacramento boys took their band and serenaded General Minis and others. At 10 o'clock the town was all quiet. The Woodlandites, with perhaps an exception of half a dozen who were in the "gin business," had closed up shop and retired for the night. Two hundred Sacramento boys, the "invited guests of the Woodland Democracy," stood in the streets hungry, thirsty and sleepy. Their train did not return until next morning. They could not get a meal of victuals in the town, excepting at the W. C. T. U., which closed its doors early. A bed was some-thing that could not be secured, the whisky could not be endured, and the only thing left for the boys to do was to file down the dark street to the depot, climb into the cars and doze away till morning. The way in which they were treated was a subject of much comment, and on a vote being taken it was decided unanimously that the peo-ple of Yolo did the proper thing in sitting lown on the Democracy at the last election An officer of one of the Democratic clubs of this city said he hoped sincerely that the Democracy of Yolo county would never

The ticket sales in the railroad office at Galt last month were the largest for one month ever known there. Health Officer Ferral has succeeded in persuading the owners of low lots on Sixth street, between G and H, to agree to fill them immediately. Two shooters killed 42 ducks at the Forester Club's lakes below the city Saturday evening and yesterday morning, 23 of the birds being canvas-backs. Constables Smith and Scott arrested in the city Saturday night a man named

Joseph Herman, who is accused of drawing a p'stol on another party at Galt. These arrests were made yesterday: Louis Tripes, by officer Kent, for vagrancy; Ye Sing, by officer Frazee, for enticing; Frank

Burk, by local officer Slater, for disturbing An officer of Nevada county took to the State Prison at San Quentin yesterday a man named Louis Grant, who is to serve a term of three years for burglary in the second degree. The alarm of fire from box 31 about 3 P. M. yesterday, was occasioned by the burning of a small frame building at Fourth and U streets. It was past saying when the Fire Department reached the locality. As one of the attractions at the Park Thanksgiving Day, Dr. Hicks has agreed to drive the phenomenally speedy yearling trotter Transit, owned by Morris Toomey, to beat 2:48. Frank Roraback, one of the proprietors of the Tivoli, died about 4 o'clock Saturday morning, after an extended illness. He was a native of New York, and in his ortieth year. The funeral took place yes-erday afternoon from the Sixth-street M. . Church. Owing to his death, there was o performance at the Tivoli Saturday afteroon or evening.

Officers Sullivan and Kent arrested Frilay evening, on a dispatch from San Fran-isco, a Chinawoman and two men who were accompanying her, just after they left the train by which they had come up. The dispatch accuses one of the men of kidnap-ing the woman, but he intimates that he wns her, and that other Chinamen get her away from him.

About 9 o'clock Friday night two China nen, named Ah Soon and Lee Ho, had a ute at Third and I streets relative to a ebt of two dollars, which the latter owed e former. Ho put an end to the dispute by emanding whether Soon wanted to mmediately drawing a knife and stabbing him in the fleshy part of the arm. Soon ran away, and subsequently informed officer

The Great Land Sale. At the time of the organization of the Northern California Immigration effort in this city in September last, the question was asked, "But will large land-holdings be subdivided and offered for sale in small lots?" Although not three months have elapsed, several large tracts are already being subdivided. The very first of these is that about to be noticed. Of all things in the world a man should possess a portion of God's footstool. It gives one omething to live for, some sense of responsibility, some idea of the possibilities of the command, "Conquer the soil." Now of all times is the time to secure land With every month the value of all desirable land enhances. On Saturday next a great credit sale of lands by auction is to be made, the locality at the lap of the richest part of the State. On these lands all the cereals, the grape, all fruit trees, grow vithout irrigation and in luxuriance. The lands are in the heart of Colusa county, as choice valley land as there is on the coast, are on the line of the Northern Railway and near the thriving town of Willows. The soil grades from gravelly to richest alluvial. Its fertility is a matter of common notoriety. The water for domestic uses is taken from wells at from ten to twenty feet in depth; the rates of taxation are low; the means of transportation un-surpassed. The county is prosperous, well governed, with the minimum of debt, and ts people are, perhaps more than those o any other interior county, well to do. The ands now to be sold in small tracts on one, two and three years' credit, one-third eash on delivery of deed, with 10 per cent. on fall of hammer, balance at 7½ per cent., and no mortgage tax, comprise 25,000 acres. Of this land last season 2,700 acres were in wheat, 1,000 summer-fallow, and 1,700 volunteer, and the average yield exceeded 25 busheis per acre, and 5,300 acres were cultivated to barley and yielded an average of about 30 bushels to the acre Upon the lands are four towns and railway stations—Willows, Logandale, Norman and Delavan. The lands consist of 5,675 acres, n township 16, suitable for stock-raising or grain-growing. One thousand acres are first-class farming land, the balance small valleys and hills, making fine ranges and well-watered by springs. On this tract are two good houses and two good barns. Part of the ranch has the very finest of vineyard and orchard land. The other lands are in townships 17, 18 and 19. That in township 17 is all first-class farming land, and good orchard and vineyard land, as also that in township 18, so in township 19. By the test of crops the past season, it is shown on to meet the first credit payment. On he lands are over twelve miles of drainage ditches, on some are inclosed fields on some waterworks, houses, corrals, storehouses, orchards, sheds, blacksmith-shop, wind-mills, etc. Much of the land is in summer-fallow or volunteered The Marysville Appeal vouches for these ands being in a winterless climate, as vielding grain, fruit and grape marvelous ly, and as embracing a section richer than iny in the cereal-producing States north and south, east of the continental divide, or in Eastern and Southern Asia. The sale is to take place at Willows at 12 o'clock Saturlay next, under the auspices of the Pacific Coast Land Bureau, for the owners, wh and William Zoller accompanied him, and are citizens of Sacramento, and sell for the very purpose of advancing the settlemcountry in which they are deeply interested and have large investment Excursion tickets will be sold to person lesiring to buy from Sacramento to Wilows for $3 for the round trip. These ickets are for sale at the California State Bank, Fourth and J street, only. THE TIVOLI.—The Cotton family are still etained in this favorite resort, and this week will play "Black Diamonds." Alexanler & Co. have had many troupes in the Fivoli, but none that took so well with the acramento public as the Cotton family-Sen, Nellie and Idalene. The latter, a 14-yearold girl, is, without exaggeration, for her ebb. A workingman receives but small comears one of the best actresses that has pensation for his labor; he cannot afford to throw een before the Sacramento public. Ben Cotton needs no mention. He simply is is compelled to sacrifice nearly his entire salary 'Ben," and that settles it. His wife, Mrs.

Sherman Island—whose wonderful products, until the cultivators foolishly burned the soil astonished everyone—is separated from these islands only by the San Joaquin river. These are the highest and driest of the so-called tule islands. The live stock on Winters' Island were safely kept through the great flood of 1861-2. At low tide during the great freshets these lands stand about four feet above the surrounding waters. These islands. Winters' Island unding waters. These islands, Winters' Island pecially, are covered with a luxuriant growth nutritious grasses, among them a species of d-top clover, affording excellent pasturage for hundreds of head of stock. The band of cattle lately sold from Winters' Island were all in prime beef condition, having raised calves and kept in such condition on merely the wild grasses of the island. Osier willow sells at a very gh figure, and there is no known locali r adapted to its culture. Good local markets, For maps and further particulars apply to

CONSUMERS SPLENDID CHANCE

A LARGE QUANTITY OF THE COAL OILS coming to this market is put up short measure, and centains but 9 to 9½ gallons to the case. Five gallons of Coal Oil, with can, weigh 35½ pounds. Parties interested should weigh all the Coal Oils they have on hand and see if they come up to this standard. If not, they have been swindled, and should make claim for all shortages. A careful weighing of 250 cans of different brands shows an average shortage of 6 per cent. or 6 gallons in each shore 22d says: The optimism of Bismarck concerning the outcome of the socialistic movement which developed so much vigor throughout the German empire in the recent general elections is evidently not shared by the Emperor William.

CUMMONS.—STATE OF CALIFORNIA,
County of Sacramento, ss. In the Superior Court in and for said county. The People of the State of California to JOHN B. FITCH, greeting: You are hereby notified that an action was commenced in the Superior Court of the county of Sacramento, State aforesaid, by filling a complaint in the Clerk's office of said Courton the 18th day of OCTOBER, 1883, in which action LIBBIE FITCH is plaintiff and you are defendant. That the general nature of the action, as appears from said comp'aint, is as follows: To obtain a decree of said Court dissolving the bands of matrimony now and heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant.
It is alleged in plaintiff's complaint that on or about August 1st, 1882, defendant willfully continued said desertion, and that defendant has failed to provide plaintiff with the common necessaries of life for more than year last past, he having the ability so to do, all of which is fully set forth in the complaint on file herein, reference to which is hereby made. And you are hereby directed to appear and answer said complaint within ten days from the service of this writ, exclusive of the day of service, if served on you in said county of Sacramento; and within thirty days, exclusive of the day of service, if served elsewhere; and you are further notified that unless you so appear and answer within the time above specified, the SUMMONS. - STATE OF CALIFORNIA
